Indianapolis

The nation's 13th largest city has gone through a dramatic revitalization and a stunning renaissance that makes it a different place than it was just a decade ago. Indy is the perfect balance of cosmopolitan style and small-town charm that makes it a successful destination for leisure travel, conventions and group tours, catering to more than 21 million visitors a year.

Indianapolis shed its image as a Rust Belt city, due in part to an aggressive downtown revitalization campaign. The diversification of the city's economic base since the 1960s has also contributed to this transformation.

Home to the Super Bowl XLI Champion Indianapolis Colts, Indiana Pacers and the INDY 500, Indianapolis has earned the labels of The Sports Capital of the World, and The Racing Capital of the World.
